

SUFFICIENT GRACE.

2026 BRIDAL COLLECTION

Designer's Statement

This collection was born from my faith in God, the struggle with perfectionism, and the growing pains of my spiritual journey.

From being isolated from friend groups,
a pastor asking me to leave his church,
To questioning my worth,
And searching for it in other people.
All born from a lack of grace given and received.

I thought perfection = worthiness in the eyes of the divine.
And that despite my strive for such,
I would never be enough to God or anyone around me.

But still,
grace is given to me,
light is still within me,
and beauty never left me.

I'm not an angel.
I'm not perfect.
But I'm still worthy.

And the same applies to you.
